Indian Diya Painting Workshop

Indian Diya Painting Workshop

Education Group's Indian Diya Painting Workshop is a fun and hands on cultural arts experience.

Providing a great way for children to learn and enjoy Diwali celebrations, the workshop involves every child decorating their own Indian Diya lamp.

The Diwali festival is a 5 day Hindu festival which when translated means 'row of lighted lamps' and the occasion is also referred to as the Festival of Lights. During the festival, candles and lamps are lit as a greeting to Laksmi, the goddess of wealth.

"The workshop fitted in perfectly with our schools Diwali celebrations and the children had a great time painting their own Diya Lamps."

On the day of the workshop, as well as painting and decorating their own Diya lamp the children also learn about the history of the Diwali festival. The workshop is suitable for all ages and all of the equipment and materials are provided.

Many of our schools also enjoy our specialist Indian Dance Workshops which provide a different way for children to enjoy Diwali or maybe as part of a 2 day event with the Diya painting.

Many schools are using these workshops for fundraising purposes by accepting a contribution from parents towards their child's Diya lamp.
